Working with an international dance and music star like Steve Aoki requires a lot of hard work and a big imagination. We collaborated on a breath-taking design that perfectly captures his unique personality and lifestyle.

OPENING NEW WINDOWS

Microsoft is known for its Windows operating system, but the company is making huge innovations in VR, encryption, and even HIV vaccines developed with machine learning. We designed these eye-catching floaties to help them make a strong statement as how this company is evolving fast.

MAKE A STATEMENT

Virgin is one of the most instantly recognizable companies in the world, and for us, that meant creating a real statement that people would love and remember.

SAINT LAURENT PARIS

LUXURY & PRESTIGE

YSL is a legendary designer brand, so we needed to create something that was stunning and luxurious. With our unique design, their event was one of the most successful launches they've ever had.

RUE SAINT-HONORÉ

A black rectangular box, likely a perfume or product packaging, is shown. The spine of the box is wrapped in a leopard print pattern. The front face of the box is plain black with white text centered on it. The text reads "SAINT LAURENT PARIS" on the first line, "x" on the second line, and "FLOATIE KINGS" on the third line. The box is set against a blurred background of warm, brown tones.

LELO

ADULT SUMMER FUN

LELO creates upmarket sex toys and massage products. For us, it was a chance to work with unique shapes you don't normally see floating in a pool.

BRAMBLING

HONEY BEAR BOP BAG

fnnch's prints have raised over $390.000 for charities, non-profits, and struggling businesses. Creating larger-than-life inflatables of these iconic honey bears was truly an honor.

CIRQUE DU SOLEIL

Creating an accurate and adorable Marshall (the firefighting dog) was important to us. We wanted kids to be blown away by our work, and based on the reactions we got, we succeeded.

YOUTUBE

Working with YouTube gave us the chance to make something truly memorable. Inflatable jet skis decked out with their world famous logo. Their party was unforgettable, and people loved taking these jet skis for a relaxing ride around the pool.

EDELMAN

Torchy's Tacos started with a mobile trailer and a red vespa, and quickly exploded into a chain with 46 locations - thanks to their bold flavors and daring creations. Their marketing is bold, too, and we loved building their baby devil inflatable to match their distinct brand.
